

Prince Charlie to Cluny of the '45

Another relic at Cluny castle no less carefully treasured is the autographed letter, of date 18th September 1746 (which is given here in facsimile), addressed by Prince Charlie to Cluny of the '45 just on the eve of their parting before the Prince escaped to France.

McPherson of Clunie

As we are sensible of your and Clans fidelity and in loyalty to us during our adventures in Scotland and England in the year 1745 and 1746 in recovering our just rights from the Elector of Hanover, by which you you have sustained very great losses both in your interest and person, I therefore promise when it shall please God to put it in my power to make a greatful return suitable to your suferings

Charles P. R.
