

A
DESCRIPTION
OF A
CHART.

Wherein are Marked out
All the Different ROUTES

OF
PRINCE EDWARD,

IN GREAT-BRITAIN,

AND
The Marches of his Army, and the

E—gl—sb.

The Sieges are distinguished, and the Battles that were fought in his Enterprize.

N. B. This BOOK, and the CHART printed from off a Copper-Plate, will be very useful in History; the Dates of the principal Events being marked with the greatest Exactness.

EDINBURGH, Printed:

Sold in May's Buildings, Covent-Garden.

M,DCC.XLIX.

A

DESCRIPTION

OF A

CHART.

Wherein are Marked out

All the Different ROUTES

OF

PRINCE EDWARD,

IN

GREAT-BRITAIN, &c.

Price, with the Chart, printed on exceeding fine Paper, 5s. Plain.

AN ABRIDGMENT
OF THE
Chief Actions of the Prince
IN HIS ENTERPRISE.

WHEN the Prince landed in Scotland, he had only for his Attendants Seven Gentlemen.

BATTLE of Preston-Pans.

At this Action the Prince had neither Horse, nor Cannon; he had only Three Thousand Foot; and scarce half of this little Army had time to give the Charge, being hindered by the excessive Ardor of the first Line: Yet the Prince gained a compleat Victory, over an Army far superior to his in Number, posted very advantageously, strengthened by a large Body of Horse and well provided with Cannon.

Battle of Falkirk.

The Prince with his Army of Observation that covered the Siege of Sterling which had not been raised, gained this Battle tho' the E—l—sh Army had so many Troops, Plenty of Cannon, and other Things necessary on such Occasions. The Slaughter that was made and the Disorder was so great they were obliged to abandon their Artillery, their Camp, Baggage, and all the Ammunition they had designed for the War in Scotland.

BATTLE of Colloden.

After the Battle of Falkirk, the Prince being obliged to retire to Inverness, and finding himself without Hope of Succours, without Money, Provisions or Ammunition, had nothing to resolve on, but to fight with Troops worn out with Hunger and continual Fatigues, an Army far more numerous than his, and well furnished with all that can support Strength and Courage; or to retire into the Mountains, where the Want of Provisions would oblige his Troops to disperse. He chose the first Part of such a Dilemma, as more agreeable to his Inclination, and more proper to change, in case of Success, the melancholy Situation in which he was. The Hope of surprising the E—sb, determined him in this Resolution; but his Guide having mistook his Way by the Obscurity of the Night, the Prince was obliged to retreat; and was no sooner arrived at his Quarters, but that a great Number of Soldiers, who had eat nothing for two Days, separated themselves to seek for some Provisions. Soon after, the E—sb appeared; their Approach only animated the Prince, who immediately gave his Orders of Battle: The Cannon having played sometime on both Sides, the Prince commanded a Charge: His Troops obeyed with their usual Intrepidity; they overthrew the first Battalions that they met with; but Numbers prevailed over Courage, Disorder spread itself every where; and yet they had a great deal of Difficulty to persuade the Princes to retire, tho' the E—sb Horse had almost surrounded him on all Sides.

EVENTS that followed the Battle of Colloden.

After this Overthrow, the Prince, becoming near the Place appointed for a general Rendezvous, proposed to the Chiefs the Assembling of the Troops, that might still remain; but he perceived, that the same Difficulties, which had hindered him before from retiring into the Mountains, still subsisted; and, that the impossibility of Provisions made such a Project impracticable; then the Security of his Person, became the only Common Object. No other Method remained, but of concealing himself, till some Ship might give him an Opportunity of regaining the Continent. It was in Expectation of such a Vessel, that, to avoid a Surprize by the E—sb Troops, who were in quest of him every where, he took, those different Journies, that are marked out on the higher Part of this Map.

The little Camps that are marked on the Tops of the Mountains, and in the Islands, shew the different Posts of those Soldiers, that went in Search of the Prince, after the Defeat of his Army. He found himself sometimes in the dangerous Necessity of traversing Two, Three, or Four of these Posts in a Day; sometimes advancing and sometimes retiring back again the same Way, just as Prudence, seemed to dictate to him; and, as he ran more or less Risque by the Examination of Centinels and Watches, or the continual Search of the E—sb.

Concealed in the Day-time, he took the Advantage of Night to travel more safely, and this always on Foot, dressed after the Fashion of the Country, with one or two Attendants, either to guide him in the Dark, or to go by Day, and inform himself of the Motions of the E—sb; who changed their Situations continually, as they imagined to surprise him in a Valley, on a Mountain, or at the Passage of a Lake; or those Arms of the Sea, which separate the Islands, or run up into the Land. But Providence would not permit his being a Prisoner, but designed his life for some other unknown future Events.

DATES of the most considerable EVENTS.

In the Year 1745, N. S. and O. S.

N. B. New Stile - is placed last'

July 3—14. THE Prince set Sail from St. Nazaire, in Britany, on Board a Frigate of Eighteen Guns; and was joined in his Passage at Bellisle by the Elisabeth sixty-six Guns which had Orders to serve him, as Convoy.

9—20. There was an Endangerment betwixt the Elisabeth and the Lion, an E—sh Man of War of Fifty-eight Guns.

15—26. The Prince landed in Scotland, on the Coast of Lochaber.

Aug. 19—30. He planted his Standard.

Sept. 13—14. He came to Donkeld, where he proclaimed his F—r.

Sept. 22—Oct. 2. On Saturday at the Break of Day, he gained the Battle of Preston-pans, over General C--pe.

Sept. 26—Oct. 6. He returned to Edinburgh.

Oct. 26, 27, 28, 29—Nov. 6, 7, 8, 9. The Duke arrived in the Thames, with E—sb Troops from Flanders, and Dutch, to the Number of Six Thousand; who landed at Berwick and Newcastle.

Oct. 30—Nov. 11. The Prince marched for E—d with his Army.

Nov. 6—17. He passed the River Tweed at Kelso.

8—19. He passed the Esk at Longtown, and entered E—d.

13—24. He began the Siege of Carlisle.

15—26. Carlisle surrendered.

17—28. General W—de marched from Newcastle, and encamped at Hexham.

19—30. Proclamation at Carlisle.

Nov. 20—Dec. 1. The Prince marched from Carlisle towards London, with his Army.

Dec. 2—13. After passing through Lancaster, Preston, and Manchester, he came to Congreton, but Twelve Miles from the Duke; who Was encamped at Stone.

4—15. He arrived at Derby, which was Ninety-six Miles from London, and Twenty-eight Miles from the Duke; who was then at Coventry.

6—17. He left Derby, and began his Retreat the same Road towards Carlisle. General W—de came the same Day to Doncaster.

18—29. There was a Skirmish at Clifton, betwixt the Rear-Guard of the Prince and the Van-Guard of the Duke.

19—30. The Prince arrived at Carlisle.

18—29. He repassed the Esk at Longtown, and re-entered Scotland.

In the Year 1746.

Dec. 24—Jan. 1. Carlisle was invested by the Duke's Army.

Dec. 23—Jan. 3. The Affair, of Inverary.

Dec. 26—Jan. 6. The Prince came to Glasgow, with his Army.

Dec. 21—Jan. 11. Carlisle opened its Gates to the Duke.

Jan. 5—16, The Prince arrived at Bonnacburn before Sterling.

6—17. He summoned the City and Castle.

7—18. The Trenches were opened before it.

9—20. He took Possession of it.

10—21. His Scotch Guards and the Irish Picquets came from Perth to Sterling.

11—22. The Squadron of Admiral B—ng made the Battery of Elphinston.

12—23. The Trenches were opened before the Castle of Sterling.

13—24. The E—sb, under General H—wl—y, encamped at Falkirk.

17—28. The Prince marched to them, and gained the Battle of Falkirk.

Jan. 30—Feb. 10. The Duke arrived from London at Edinburgh.

Jan. 31—Feb. 11. The Duke marched his Troops from Edinburgh to Linlithgow.

Feb. 1—12. The Prince began his Retreat into the North and repassed the Forth at the Ford of Frew.

8—19. The H---s---ns to the Number of Six Thousand, landed at Leith, near to Edinburgh.

10—21. The Prince took Possession of the Fort of Ruven-Badeck; which he caused to be demolished.

Feb. 21—March 3. The Prince came before the City of Inverness, and drove thence the Lord L—d—n, and his Troops, that were Two Thousand.

Feb. 24—March 6. The Trench was opened before Fort St. George.

Feb. 26—March 8. The Fort surrendered, and was demolished some time after.

Feb. 28—March 10. The Prince took up his Quarters at Inverness.

Feb. 29—March 11. He detached Troops to besiege Fort Augustus.

March 2—13. They blew up the Fort Kilcumin.

3—14. The Trenches were opened before Fort Augustus.

4—15. They blew up, with Bombs, the Powder Magazine.

6—17. The Fort surrendered, and was demolished.

8—19. They seized Ten small Vessels at Little Ferry.

8—19. They blocked up Blair Castle.

9—20. The He—s—ns arrived at Donkeld, and Castle-Menzy; and General C—mp—l took his Quarters, with his Troops at Jnverary.

10—30. The Trenches were opened before Fort William.

Mar. 25—Apr. 5. The Capture of the Vessel, called Prince Charles, in Tung-bay.

April 2—13. The Siege was raised of Fort William, and the Blockade of Blair-Castle.

11—22. All the E—g—sb Army assembled at Cullen.

12—23. The E—g—sb passed the River Spey.

13—24. They encamped at Nairn.

16—27. Was fought the Battle of Colloden.

Sept. 19—30. The Prince, after having wandered in Islands, and on Mountains, embarked for France, from a Village called Boradel, upon the Coast of Lochaber; where he had first landed in Scotland.

N. B. More Care has been take¹ in this Chart belonging to the Book, to mark out the Motions of the Armies, than to make an exact Geographical Description of the Counties. An old Map of Morden was our Model, as being proper for the Design.

Note also, The Route of the Prince is marked thus

The Route of the Duke ----- . The Battles White of the Prince: The Battles Black of the Dake. In the Colouring, the Route of the Prince Red: That of the Duke Yellow. The Coasts Green. The Figures proper.

M O T T O 's.

BRITANNIA.

Ecce novum Sidus.

Lo a new Star.

JUSTICE.

Aftrea redit.

Equity returns.

VENUS.

Ipsa favet Venus.

Venus herself favours.

NEPTUNE.

Imperium Pelagi.

The Empire of the Sea.

APOLLO.

Adjuvit Apollo.

Apollo assisted.

LUNA.

Lumenque obscura vicissim, Luna premit.

And the obscure Moon in her Turn hides her Light.

Voca Zephyros.

Call the Zephirs.

Hâc ventos agit.

With this he drives the Winds.

F I N I S.

BOOKS lately Published.

And Sold in May's-Buildings, Covent-Garden.

I. THE Groans and Miseries of Great-Britain, modestly stated; or, an Appeal from the People to their Representatives. Being a faithful Remonstrance of Grievances, &c. Addressed to, all who have any Bowels of Affection or Compassion, left for their injured, distressed, and unhappy Country: Particularly to the honest independent Old Whigs, if any such are still remaining pure and untainted, in their antient Principles of Liberty. By the Author of the Dialogue in the Gardens of Luxembourg, between an Old Whig and a Nonjuror, &c. Price 1s.

II. Cry aloud and spare not; or, plain useful Facts and Remarks, proper to be known and considered; not only now, But at all Times hereafter, for the better Information and Instruction of every free-born independent Subject and Elector of Great-Britain.

Addressed to all sincere Well-wishers to the Liberties of old England. By an independent free Agent, and Citizen of the World.

Price 6 d.

III. The Free-born Englishman's unmask'd Battery;
or, a short Narrative of our miserable Condition:
Grounded on undeniable Facts, for the plain honest
Information of the Publick; whose Right and Interest it is to address for Relief; and to endeavour, at least, to make the best of a bad Market. With some Quotations from the great and famous William Penn the Quaker; explaining the Duty of a true Protestant Dissenter to the King, &c. By the Author of Cry aloud and spare not.
Price 1s.

IV. A remarkable Dialogue, which lately happened in the Gardens of Luxembourg, between an old impartial English Whig and a Nonjuror of the Church of England, concerning the Young Chevalier, &c. Price 1s. 6*d*.—This is a proper Pamphlet for a further Explanation of the Chart of the Route of that Gentleman.

V. A familiar instructive Dialogue, which lately happened at a Tavern near the Royal Exchange, between an eminent Merchant of Dunkirk, one of their greatest Politicians there, and an English Member of Parliament. Price 1s.

VI. Deliciæ Britanniae; or, the Curiosities of Hampton-Court and Windsor-Castle, delineated: With occasional Reflections; and embellished with Copperplates of the Two Palaces, &c. (a necessary Pocket-Companion for such as visit those Courts.) The whole attempted with a View, not only to engage the Attention of the Curious, but to inform the Judgments of those who have the least Taste for the Art of Painting. Second Edition. Bound. 2s. 6d. To be continued through the Courts.

VII. The Usefulness of the Stage to Religion and Government; also, a Distinction between the Stage and the Press, With a Frontispiece. Price 1s.

VIII. The Life and Death of Piere Gaveston Earl of Cornwal Grand Favourite and Prime Minister: With political Remarks by way of Caution to all crowned Heads, and evil Ministers: With a curious Frontispiece in a political Taste. Price 1s.

IX. An Introduction to Dancing; or, genteel Behaviour fully explained by Twelve Figures in Dancing Portions, drawn from the Life, and printed Directions: With Twelve Minuets, and Rigadoons: Never before published. The Musick by an eminent Hand. Price 1s.

X. A short Trip into Kent; containing the Occurrences of Four Summer's Days; calculated as an Antidote against the Gloominess of the Winter Months; and particularly that which occasioned by the Observation of the Thirtieth of January. In Hudibrastick Verfe. Price 6d.

XI. The Art of Fortification delineated; with Rules for Designing, Drawing, Washing, and Colouring, in the most elegant Taste, particular Works and Buildings, and their Plans and Elevations, Sections, Profiles and Fronts, in Civil and Military Architecture: As likewise the entire Survey of a Place, with its particular Charts; and the Description of Provinces, States, Kingdoms, Empires, &c. A Work absolutely necessary for the Gentleman, Officer, and Architect. Translated by J. Dinsdale. Adorned with Twenty-three Cuts, engraved. Price 5s.

Where may be had, great Variety of Political, Satirical, and Humourous Prints, at the lowest Prices, viz.

1. THE Negotiators; or the Convention of Europe.
 2. The Statue of a great Man or, the English Colossus.
 3. The Cardinal in the Dumps; or, the Wall with Pole.
 4. The Motion; or, Political Libertines, let me out.
 5. The Queen of H—g—ry stripp'd, with the K—g's Robing.
 6. The Change of Placemen, or Wheel of Fortune; with a Song,
 7. The Directors of the scal'd Masons, or the motley Team of State.

8. The Consultation of Physicians on the Case of the Queen of H—g—ry.

9. The Lion in Love, applicable to the present Times; a Tale.

10. The Court Sport; or, the Man made a Shittlecock.

11. The Queen of H—g—ry in Splendor; or the Monsieurs in Prague.

12. The Confectioner-General setting forth the H—r Desert at Detingen.

13. The H—r Bubble; or, Our All to Nothing, poor Lion.

14. The Court Fright, or H—r over; the Fox mount Lion.

15. The List of the Daily Pay for Foreign Soldiers, H—r—s, H—s—s.

16. The sh—ten Condition of Pr—a with H—g—ry Water.

17. Next Sculls at the Ad—l—ty, or the Change of the Broad-Bottoms.

18. The Face of the Country whereon Ha—n—r stands, Phiz of a Man, tho' a Landscape.

19. The Political Battle-Royal; on Br—gb—n's new Boxing-School.

20. No Smuggling Tea at the Crown, with the Speech of a Hat-Man.

21. Spring-Gardens, Vaux-Hall, on opening next Season.

22. B—l—slé's Progress to Captivity; or, European Mourners.

23. Britons Associations against the Pope's Bulls.

24. A Nurse of the H—ssi—ns, the Pay for Horse and Man.

25. The Queen of the Mohock's Lady coming past a Night-Cellar.

26. The. Cabal; or, the Picteresque Appearance of a very great Statesman.

27. The Dutchess of M—r's Ghost to W—m P—t, Esq;

28. Bob-Cherry for Places at the Sign of the Crown.

29. A Courier just setting out to H—ll: Who has any Letters to send?

30. A Papist, with his Jacobite Running Footman.

31. A Funeral Ticket for Lord Lovat, with Emblematicks.

32. The M—r—ys; or, the Thistle blown with Impeachments.

33. The Stature, Dress and Likeness, of the Lords beheaded.

34. The Leap-Frog; or D—h over E—gl—sh Embass—dors.

35. The Antique Heads of Camb—ge, Nos Numerus sumus.

36. The Cats-Paw; or, the Sc—tcb Doctor in his Chariot.

37 The Two Shillings Butcher; or, Covent Garden Election.

38. The Cradle; or, No crazy Baby Procession of the Election.

39. The Mit—d Soldier; or, the Ch—ch Militant.

40. L—mb—h, Ha we; or, the Rowing-Match.

41. The fawning Priest; or, disappointed Tool.

42. Blackamoor Jack Dr. R—ck picking Sheep-T—ds for Pills.

43. The Parcæ or, European Fates with Chocho—G—ge.

44. The Modern Orpheus; or, Picture of a Musician.

45. Scotch Taste in Visto; one in Church, t'other in a Gibbet.

46. Murder; or, the late shocking Event at Oxford
Scout.

47. The Contrast; or, Mercy, or Butchery.

48. The Political Faith, or Triple Creed, with a Head-piece.

49. The Medley, or Placeman's Creed, with curious Cards.

50. The Skit on Britain, or B—b triumphant.

51. The State of Europe, by Beasts and Fowls in Fl--d—rs.

52. Pasquin, or the Emblematist; with three different Views.

53. The Independent Electors of W—stm—er in Union.

54. 'The Yawn of a late Prime Minister as big as Life.

With many others, equally curious.