Whitehall, June 11.

This Day an Express arrived from his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, with the following Advices.

Fort Augustus, June 5. Lord George Sackville and Major Wilson are marched to the Barrack of Bernera with 500 Foot, from whence they are to proceed Southward along the Coast, till they come over against the Head of Loch Arkaig, where Lieutenant Colonel Cornwallis is with another Body of 300 Men. From thence the two Corps are to proceed Southwards through the Countries of the MacDonalds of Moidart and Knoydart, whilst Captain Scot, with the old Garrison of Fort William, which was relieved two Days ago by Brigadier General Houghton's Regiment, will advance from the South to meet them; and Major General Campbell, or the Officer commanding the Argyllshire Militia in his Absence, is to scour the Country about Mingary Castle. It is to be hoped this Force will disperse the small Remains of the Rebels, if any of them should be got together. His Royal Highness proposes to wait here the Return of this Detachment, and that will prevent his marching from hence so soon as he otherwise would have done. By this Time all the Rebel Prisoners are sailed for Newcastle. His Royal Highness has authentick Intelligence, that the Pretender's Son embarked in a small Boat three or four Days after the Action of Culloden for Long Island, from whence he was dodging backwards and forwards in a small Vessel, even some Time after the French Ships were off the Coast. There are also confirmed Accounts received from several Parts, that the Rebels are now totally dispersed, and that there are not, in any Part, 50 of them together.

At the same Time the following Advices were received by Express from Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, June 8.

The Embarkation of the Hessian Troops will be finished this Night, so that they will be ready to sail To-morrow. By Letter from Inverary we are informed, that on the 27th of last Month General Campbell sailed with 1000 choice Argyllshire Men from Dunstaffnage, and that Night anchored in Tobermory Bay in Mull, and next Day arrived at Strontian, the Heart of Lochiel's Clan where Mr. Cameron of Dungallon brought in Men and Arms to Major General Campbell and with them surrendered to the King's Mercy. The Inhabitants of Morvern and Ardnarmurchan are doing the same. Lochiel with his Unkle Ludovick, Murray the Secretary, and some others, are on the North Side of Lochiel with no great Attendance, and must soon quit their Quarters.

Copenhagen; June 11, N.S.

The last Post from Norway brings Advice from his Britannick Majesty's Consul at Bergen, that thirteen Persons had been seized upon the 24th of last Month, and were confined there upon Suspicion of having been concerned in the Rebellion in Scotland. Private Advices say, that after the Battle of Culloden they had seized upon a small Sloop belonging to Dundee; and, by threatening to shoot the Master, James Weems, had forced him to set Sail with them for Gottenberg; but the Wind turning contrary, they were obliged to put into the River of Bergen, where they were taken, and committed to the Castle.

Brussels, June 13, N.S.

The Brest Squadron still continues in the Road of Aix near Rochelle. We have Advice from Italy, that the Sardinian Troops were preparing to invest Tortona; and we expect every Moment to hear of an Action between the Austrian and Spanish Armies near Placentia. We hear from Nantes, that on the 6th Instant N.S, the Mars and Bellona, two Ships which were some Time ago sent to Scotland with Supplies for the Pretender's Son, returned thither. They were attacked in the Bay of Loch nan Uamh by an English Frigate and two English Sloops, which, after an Engagement of five Hours, were obliged to retire. Several Passengers arrived on Board the above vessel, and amongst others, Lord John Drummond, Mess. Sheridan, Sullivan, and Lochiel junior. The Duke of Perth died in his Passage. They brought no News of the Pretender's Son.
